

The High Companies
1853 William Penn Way
Lancaster, PA 17601
717.293.4444
www.high.net

Robin Stauffer
Assistant Corporate Secretary and Executive Director of High Foundation

Robin Stauffer is Assistant Corporate Secretary of the High companies serving as liaison between The High Family Council, the Chair of the Boards, the Directors and Committee members, and the CEO. She is also Executive Director of High Foundation, a philanthropic nonprofit organization that is funded by members of the High Family, owners of High, and manager of The High Family Office.

Robin has held administrative positions throughout her tenure, serving most recently as Corporate Secretary and Office Manager – Executive Area. She joined High in 1985.

She earned a BS degree in Business Administration from The Pennsylvania State University.

Robin is a member of the Board of Lancaster General Health Foundation. She is a past member of the Board of Directors of United Way of Lancaster County and served on the Executive Committee and as an inaugural member of Women UNITED. Robin was recognized with the Central Penn Business Journal's Women of Influence Award for Community Achievement and was inducted into its Circle of Excellence.

In addition, Robin is a member of the Lancaster County Community Foundation where she serves on the Community Engagement Committee. She is a past member of the Grant Distribution Committee. She is also a sustainer on the Junior League of Lancaster, Inc. where she served on the Sustainer Advisory Board as Assistant Chair and Chair, 5th Anniversary Sustaining Member Recognition, and on the Finance Committee. Robin is a past member of the Elizabethtown College Business Advisory Council.